PASTOR'S CORNER

Today we are blessed to hear reports from the mission field. Our Elders, Butch Suello and Sam Sibayan along with Deacon Sam Choudhari are the short-term missionaries we sent as a church for a mission trip to the Philippines. From January 24 to February 6, they proclaimed the Gospel message through public preaching, Gospel songs, distributing Gospel literature and personal evangelism. They travelled to Pangasinan, Nueva Ecija, Benguet and the Mountain Province. In partnership with the local pastors and church members in the area, they saw people from every age and gender praying to receive Christ as Savior. We at Grace Abounds Church have our share in the spiritual harvest through our financial and prayer support. The church covered the team in prayer every Sunday, Thursday and Saturday aside from our personal intercessions. As I listened to their stories first-hand, they were with one voice in saying that missions is not about them or us at GAC but always about God.
