PASTOR'S CORNER

We are designating the remainder of July, and the whole months of August and September as The Great Commission Summer. We're focusing on the fact that every born-again follower of Christ is called to be a missionary – a participant in obeying Christ's Great Commission beginning in our communities.

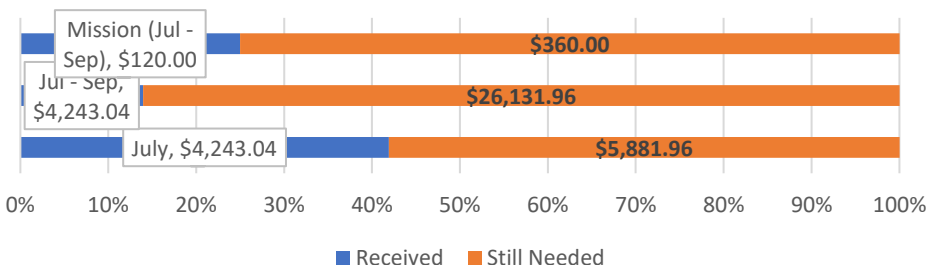

Let me say it again, every Christian is called to a missionary lifestyle devoted to taking the Gospel to every person on earth. How is this possible? We adapt the Coca-Cola philosophy: "Act locally; Think globally." Or think "glocal."

It is our prayer that what we will do as a local congregation we will have a glocal mentality that in disseminating the Gospel message through our life, lips and giving out Gospel literature will have a global impact.

On July 28, that's next Sunday, God willing, I will talk from the pulpit about 2 missions: Christ's mission for the church and our personal mission on the part we play in the Great Commission.

Just as every Christian has a unique role to play in Christ's mission to the world, so does our church. Based on our location, the giftedness of our congregation and the calling from God, the congregation of Grace Abounds Church should be laser-focused in this unique mission.
